Christmas Cantata – Love Came Down at Christmas

Sunday, December 21 | 10:30 a.m. Worship Service

On Sunday, December 21, the First Presbyterian Church Chancel Choir will offer a special Christmas cantata during the 10:30 a.m. worship service, inviting the congregation to experience the Nativity story through music, scripture, and reflection. Under the direction of Director & Organist Kelley Head, the choir will present Joel Raney's *Love Came Down at Christmas—a moving musical proclamation of the heart of the Christmas message.

This beloved composition is rooted in the central Christian truth that God's love was made flesh and came to earth in the form of the baby Jesus. Inspired by Christina Rossetti's 19th-century poem Love Came Down at Christmas, first published in 1885, Raney weaves timeless words throughout the work, setting them to an original tune while echoing lines of the poem across the larger musical narrative. The result is a rich reflection on the incarnation—God's love made visible, tangible, and personal.

In its full cantata form, Love Came Down at Christmas is shaped around the four traditional Advent themes of hope, peace, joy, and love, telling the Christmas story through a thoughtful blend of original melodies, familiar carols such as "Angels We Have Heard on High" and "Away in a Manger," and scriptural narration drawn primarily from the Gospel of Luke.

This musical offering is shared as an act of worship and a gift to the congregation—an opportunity to slow down in the midst of the season and listen anew to the story that stands at the center of our faith. All are warmly invited to join us for this meaningful service as we celebrate the truth that love came down at Christmas.

Draw Near: A Devotional Lighting the Advent Path with Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love

Each day of Advent, this devotional written by Teri McDowell Ott and published by Presbyterian Outlook offers a gentle invitation to draw near — to Scripture, to stillness, and to the heart of God. Following the traditional Advent themes, you'll light the way week by week with hope, peace, joy and love, preparing not just for Christmas, but for Christ's presence among us. Alongside daily reflections, this journey is enriched by artwork from children — tender, honest interpretations of sacred texts that remind us what it means to receive the kingdom like a child. Their drawings offer not just illustration, but illumination — echoing the wonder and welcome of the season.

We are not alone

MATTHEW 1:23

“Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel,’ which means, ‘God is with us.’”

Love shows up — not with all the answers, or with easy fixes, but with presence. That's the kind of love we meet in Advent. Not distant. Not clinical. Not observing from afar. It's a love that is with us. In the pain. In the joy. In the questions. In the blood, sweat and tears of being human.

Emmanuel. God with us.

Advent love is the staggering love of the incarnation. God doesn't send instructions. God comes in human flesh to live our life and grieve our grief. God knows what it feels like to be tired, to be anxious, to be left behind and left out. God's love is not abstract. It is love that breathes, walks, weeps. A love that stays.

As a pastor, I once sat in a hospital room beside a man who had lost the ability to speak after a head injury. I talked to him for a while, filling the silence until I ran out of words. I considered leaving — even started gathering my things — but then he reached out, grabbed the arm of my chair and gently pulled me closer. He couldn't say it, but he didn't have to. He wanted me to stay. So I did. We sat together in silence, holding hands, praying prayers we never spoke aloud.

When life collapses, what people remember most isn't what you said. It's that you were there.

Advent reminds us that we are not alone. Not in our suffering. Not in our celebrations. Not in our ordinary Sunday afternoons. God is not just for us or above us. God is with us.

FOR REFLECTION:

When have you experienced someone's presence as a form of love? How might you offer someone else your presence this week as that kind of love?

PRAYER:

Emmanuel, thank you for the kind of love that shows up: not with platitudes, but with presence. Help us feel your nearness today, and help us mirror your love by showing up for others, too. Amen.

Christmas Joy Offerings Are Now Being Accepted!

In Isaiah 40, the prophet asks those listening to do a very simple task with major implications: prepare the way. Isaiah is not asking those listening to prepare the way for themselves; rather, our call is to prepare the way for the very real presence of God.

Every year the Christmas Joy Offering prepares the way to bring hope through leadership development, education and critical financial assistance.

Offerings will be accepted now through December 24th. Please pick up an envelope in the Sanctuary on Sunday!

Alternative Christmas Gifts

Alternative Christmas Gifts of Christmases Past

Give a lasting gift! Suggested donations $5.00, $10.00 or your choice!

Take an ornament and card that explains the project.

This year we draw from many years of Alternative Christmas ornaments. In previous years we have supported the Roma by suppling bread and butter fees so that marginalized children could attend school. Other ornaments helped provide uniforms for children in Rwanda while paying their mothers to make these uniforms. More recently we have provided a variety of things through the Presbyterian Giving Catalog, including farm animals, honeybees, and moringa seeds. This year we will again be utilizing the Presbyterian Giving Catalog towards food baskets for refugees.

FILLING THE LITTLE RED WAGON ....

Each Sunday our Young Disciples collect food in the little red wagon for donation to the SERVE, Inc. food pantry.

During the winter season, there is a special need for high protein donations such as canned or pouched meats and fish (like tuna, salmon, and chicken), peanut butter and other nut butters, and canned or dried beans and lentils. Other excellent options are nuts and seeds, canned stews or chili, and shelf-stable powdered or shelf-stable milk alternatives.

If you choose to make a monetary donation instead, just make a check out to FPC with the words "SERVE Food Pantry" in the memo line. You can hand it to one of the young disciples as they collect food or drop it in the collection plate in the Narthex or at the Lobby door of the Sanctuary.

LET'S FILL THE WAGON EACH WEEK!

What is an Earth Care Congregation?

The First Presbyterian Church is a certified Earth Care Congregation by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)'s Presbyterian Hunger Program. The Earth Care Congregation certification is designed to recognize churches that make the commitment to take seriously God's charge to "till and keep" the garden.

Earth Care Congregations exist as strong community partners in their own areas as well as models for Presbyterian congregations across the country. One of the goals of this program is to inspire churches to care for God's earth in a holistic way, through integrating earth care into all aspects of their church life. It is the intention that the earth care ethic becomes ingrained in a congregation's culture, spreads to the surrounding community, and impacts the personal lives of individual church members.

Obtaining this status speaks to the serious commitment that Fulton First Presbyterian has made to care for God's earth. For more information on the Earth Care Congregations program visit www.pcusa.org/earthcarecongregations.
